SPEAKERS

Svein Backer

Director Internal Equities
Lockheed Martin Investment Management Company

Svein is the Director of Internal Equities at Lockheed Martin Investment Management Company.

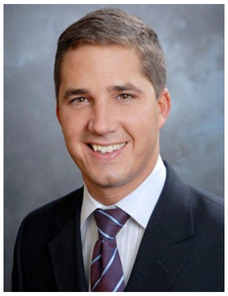
Lockheed Martin Investment Management Company, LMIMCo, serves as the in-house asset manager for various U.S. employee postretirement benefit plans sponsored by Lockheed Martin Corporation. With approximately USD83 billion of assets under management and over 200,000 plan participants and beneficiaries, LMIMCo is one of the top ten U.S. corporate pension plans measured by assets under management.

Svein Backer's internally managed equity group consists of a team of 5 professionals in Bethesda/MD (PM + 4 analysts) and manages approximately US$ 850 million in Global Equities.

Prior to Lockheed Martin, Svein was the Director of Public Securities for Dow Chemical's Pension Investments group. At Dow he managed its in-house $880 million equity and $1.9Bn fixed income portfolios as well as serving on the pension plan's Investment Policy Committee.

Svein has 32 years of experience in global financial markets as an analyst, portfolio manager and strategist. Over his career he has managed European, EAFE, US and Global equity portfolios. He has served as Chairman of the Northern Trust Corporation's Global Asset Allocation Committee as well as International Portfolio Strategist at Driehaus Capital Management.

Svein is a Norwegian citizen and a U.S. permanent resident. He received his Masters of Business Administration in 1997 from the University of Chicago with concentration in Finance, International Business, and Business Economics. He received his Bachelor's of Business Administration Magna Cum Laude in Finance from the Loyola University of Chicago in 1992. In 1987, he graduated from the Norwegian Army Infantry Military Academy and in 1985 he completed the Norwegian Army Officer Candidate School for Field Artillery.



Dan Clifton

Head of Policy Research
Strategas

Daniel Clifton is a Partner and Head of Policy Research for Strategas Securities. In this capacity, Mr. Clifton evaluates the financial market implications of policy and political developments. This includes analyzing tax, trade, infrastructure, healthcare, energy, defense and other policy initiatives to determine how public policy changes impact the economy and financial markets for institutional investors.

Daniel leads Strategas' Washington policy research team, which is the #1 ranked Washington policy team on Wall Street, according to Institutional Investor (II). Dan and his team have been ranked as one of the top Washington policy teams in each of the past 16 years. Mr. Clifton is also a top ranked analyst in the category of Accounting and Tax Policy according to the same II report.

Mr. Clifton's research on the interaction between policy, elections, and financial markets is widely cited in the media and Daniel is a frequent guest on CNBC, Bloomberg, and Fox Business.

Prior to joining Strategas, Mr. Clifton was Executive Director of the American Shareholders Association (ASA), a non-partisan, non-profit organization which analyzes public policy affecting shareholders. Daniel also worked on tax policy issues prior to the ASA and has been involved in every major tax policy change over the past twenty years. Prior to moving to Washington, Mr. Clifton served as a senior staff member in two gubernatorial administrations working on economic and fiscal policy issues.

Mr. Clifton received both his BA in Urban Planning and his MS in Public Policy from Rutgers University where he was a Fellow at the Eagleton Institute of Politics and a Harold Martin Fellow for Public Policy.
